Dedicated to ...

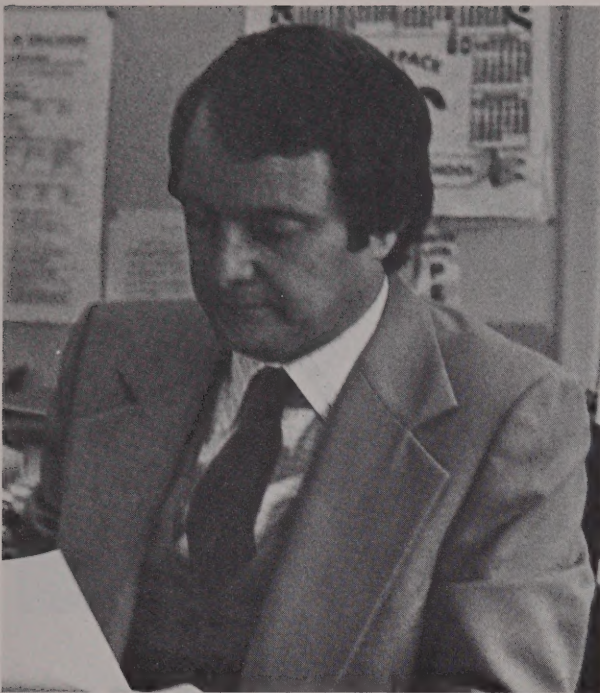

Mr. Miller

The program book staff would like to dedicate this issue to two Latin faculty members who, between them, have taught for many years.

LATIN

The oldest schoolboy football rivalry in the country brings together a fine group of student-athletes. I am pleased that the game has added significance this year. It is essential that this traditional rivalry be strengthened and preserved. The teams are again competitive, a tribute, I feel, to the determination and hard work of concerned alumni and friends of both institutions. The spirit and enthusiasm of the students attending these two fine schools is a source of pride to the entire Boston School System. I congratulate the coaches and players of both schools for their effort and dedication. Let us hope that we may continue the tradition of excellence and good sportsmanship which has existed at both institutions for over ninety years.

ENGLISH

As English High School enters its 160th year, we enjoy our second oldest tradition, the English-Latin football game. This football game epitomizes all that is High School athletics: the titanic struggle between the two oldest schools in the country. On this holiday it certainly gives us reason to be thankful. We hope that all of the young people who participate in today's event will always remember and cherish the memories of their high school career and carry forward this tradition in their hearts and minds.

Happy Thanksgiving to all.

COACH COSTELLO'S STATEMENT

The outlook for our 1980 Football team was to be a year of development as only two starters were returning from last year's squad. However, the Wolfpack has posted four shutouts to date.

Now we have arrived at the final game of the season. It is a game rich in tradition and memories. And it gives each athlete that participates a common bond with those athletes that have competed before him.

I wish to extend to my seniors best wishes on the road ahead. To my captain, Robert Burke, a big thank you for a fine job of leadership and dedication. I am very grateful to my assistant coaches, Paul Mani, Bob Perryman, Tom McNamara and Frank Stevens for their outstanding efforts.

Paul J. Costello
Head Coach, Latin

COACH PARKER'S STATEMENT

The 1980 English High Football Team will be remembered as a dedicated group of athletes who learned by discipline and made themselves excel through hard work and self-sacrifice. It's been a pleasure to have worked with these athletes and a special thanks to coaches Bill Stewart and our Defensive coach, John Sousa.

B.L.S. FIGHT SONG

On the field of many colors
Latin's banners fly.
Cheer one, cheer like volley thunder
echoes to the sky.
See the Latin team advancing,
gaining more and more.
So we'll fight, fight, fight with all our might.
Dear old Latin evermore.
